

Dear AAPPS-DPP members

Our DPP member Prof. Sergei Bulanov provided a job information.

He is a EPS-DPP 2016 Alfven Prize recipient as you know (see our photo in 2016 EPS).

He is now located at ELI-BL in Dolni Brezany (near Prague) in Czech Republic and part time working in QST, Japan.

ELI (extreme Light Infrastructure) is a unique European project.

The ERT (Excellence Research Team) recruits scientists and technicians for developing theory, computer simulations, and for preparing and developing of experiments on high power laser facilities, who will work with Prof. S. V. Bulanov .

Prof. Bulanov has extremely high scientific records (WoS =16183) as you can see from <http://www.expertcorps.ru/science/whoiswho/ci86>

Please apply to work with this fantastic scientist.

Sincerely yours,

M. Kikuchi, AAPPS-DPP chair
